ARTICLE IV. SOLICOTORS

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 18-126—18-135. Reserved.

DIVISION 2. CHARITABLE SOLICITATIONS

Sec. 18-136. - Permit required.

No person shall solicit contributions or anything else of value for any real or alleged charitable or religious purpose without a permit from the city recorder authorizing such solicitation. This section shall not apply to any locally established organization or church operated exclusively for charitable or religious purposes if the solicitations are conducted exclusively among the members thereof, voluntarily and without remuneration for making such solicitations, or if the solicitations are in the form of collections or contributions at the regular assemblies of any such established organization or church.

(Code 1978, § 5-301)

Sec. 18-137. - Prerequisites for issuance of permit.

The recorder shall, upon application, issue a permit authorizing charitable or religious solicitations when, after a reasonable investigation, he finds the following facts to exist:

(1) Each applicant has a good character and reputation for honesty and integrity, as evidenced by the fact that he has not been convicted of any offense involving moral turpitude.

(2) The control and supervision of the solicitation will be under responsible and reliable persons.

(3) The applicant has not engaged in any fraudulent transaction or enterprise.

(4) The solicitation will not be a fraud on the public but will be for a bona fide charitable or religious purpose.

(5) The solicitation is prompted solely by a desire to finance the charitable cause described by the applicant.

(Code 1978, § 5-302)

Sec. 18-138. - Denial of permit.

Any applicant for a permit to make charitable or religious solicitations may appeal to the city manager if he has not been granted a permit within 15 days after he makes application therefor.

(Code 1978, § 5-303)

Sec. 18-139. - Exhibition of permit.

Any solicitor required by this division to have a permit shall exhibit such permit at the request of any police officer or person solicited.

(Code 1978, § 5-304)

Sec. 18-140. - Trespassing.

It shall be unlawful and deemed to be a trespass for any permittee acting under this division to fail to leave promptly the private premises of any person who requests or directs him to leave.

(Code 1978, § 5-305)

Sec. 18-141. - Penalty; violations.

Any person convicted of a violation of any provision of this division or making a false or fraudulent statement either in his application for a permit or in the process of making a solicitation shall be subject to the penalty provided in section 1-9 of this Code. In addition to or in lieu of any pecuniary penalty, if a convicted violator has been issued a permit, his permit shall be cancelled and revoked by the court.

(Code 1978, § 5-306)
